Judas
Dogwood
Hawthorn
Gordonia
Magnolia

Shade Trees

Possibly the most attractive features in many of our New England towns are the large shade and ornamental trees. It is absolutely necessary to include deciduous trees in your home or street plantings, since no other trees can equal in foliage or growing characteristics those produced by this group.

It is important to plant some of these trees each year, since it takes from ten to twenty-five years to produce a good-sized specimen. Plant medium-sized trees and they will grow rapidly into lofty specimens. Trees available include:

Maple
Birch
Cercidiphyllum
Beech
Sweet Gum
Apple

Plane
Oak
Willow
Mountain-Ash
Linden
Elm

Spring Special

In some varieties, such as Sweet Gum and Pin Oaks, we offer unusual values. Consult catalogue for complete list.

Our standard shrubs are good, sturdy, well-grown plants which will thrive and grow rapidly into fine bushes.

The specimen shrubs are larger, well-developed plants which have been spaced and pruned in the nursery, and when used in plantings, give an immediate landscape effect.

Evergreens

Evergreens are the mainstay of the landscape. A variety of colors, sizes and shapes lend interest and year-round attractiveness.

Evergreens have many uses. Varieties such as dwarf Yews and Junipers are excellent for house planting—Hemlocks, Arborvitæ, Upright Yews for hedges—Pines, Spruces and the Firs for the larger, heavier screening.

Evergreens are truly a permanent investment, expressing lasting peace and sturdiness.
